DC Ink Supergirl: Being Super by Mariko Tamaki and Joelle Jones. Originally released as single issues, this was initially going to be part of the first wave of DC Ink titles when it was released as a trade, but because the imprint as a whole was delayed, the Being Super trade was published without the DC Ink branding. It's very much in the spirit of the imprint, though, being out of the main DCU continuity and character-driven rather than plot-focused.
