6 Vulnerability Points the Devil Uses to Attack You ...

The one who does what is sinful is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work" (1 John 3:7-8). The apostle John is speaking of personal holiness. The child of God lives in righteousness. Those who live in unrepentant, continued sin show themselves to be children of the devil because they reflect the devil's nature.

Some Christians, however, may or may not realize it but instead of doing the things that God wants them to do, they are already doing the devil's work for him. We are all called to do the Lord's work in His vineyard, but sadly, some of us who say we follow and obey Christ are doing the devil's work. But how do Christians do the devil's work for him, you may ask? Here are a few ways Christians do the enemy's work for him. 1) Slander, falsely accuse, and condemn

In Acts 10:38, Peter described Jesus as one who “went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil.” In other words, the devil often oppresses people with illness. This too is one of his designs. But don’t make the mistake of saying every sickness is the work of the devil. To be sure, even when a “thorn in the flesh” is God’s design for our sanctification, it also may be the “messenger of Satan” (2 Corinthians 12:7).

Not only is Satan involved in the work of preventing, in terms of his work in his own children, but secondly, in the work of perverting. He not only desires to prevent the truth, he desires to pervert the truth so that what people are hearing isn’t the truth at all. And he does this by several means. Number one is by teaching false doctrine.

Satan's Ten Strategies Against You | Desiring God

My answer is that wherever saving truth is hated and resisted and distorted and muted, Satan is at work so that people are kept from being saved by the truth of the gospel. That's where I see his works most clearly.
